

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength. Latest U. S. Government Food Report.

Watessing Notes.

All kinds of canvassers are now looked upon with suspicion in Watessing. The Watessing Field Club held its regular monthly meeting on Monday night.

The Library Coterie were entertained with a thrilling burglary romance on Tuesday night.

It will be pleasing news to many Watessing homes to learn that there is a prospect of a revival in the batting trade.

When Samuel Ellor is recovering from an illness he wants it understood that he is "getting better." He does not want any convalescence about it.

The beautiful astronomical display in the heavens last week brought forth a short talk on "Astronomy" on Sunday night by Pastor Clement of the Watessing M. E. Church. The discourse was interesting and instructive.

Lodge Notes.

George W. Way, Commander of Plereson Post, attended the annual convention of the G. A. R. at Trenton on Thursday.

Bloomfield Lodge, No. 40, F. & A. M., will hold its regular communication next Tuesday night, when the Entered Apprentice degree will probably be conferred.

The rank of Knight was conferred on two Esquires in Eureka Lodge, K. of P., on Tuesday evening. One application for membership was received. The Grand Lodge will meet next Wednesday in Trenton, and the silver anniversary of the order will be celebrated in Taylor's Opera-House on the evening of the 17th. James W. Crisp is the delegate from Eureka Lodge, Fred J. Hall alternate.

Oakland Notes.

The carpenters employed by Contractor Grimes of Boonton arrived on Tuesday and began the work of raising the house of H. E. Demorest on Morton Street.

Ward G. Stafford will have a flagstone sidewalk put down in front of his premises on Belleville Avenue as soon as the weather permits.

The name of Fred M. Davis of Orchard Street has been mentioned for the office of Town Committeeman-at-Large.

Thrown From a Wagon.

Dennis Conroy's horse became frightened and ran away on Bloomfield Avenue last Sunday evening. At Race Street the animal ran on the sidewalk and collided with the fence, smashing the buggy and throwing Conroy to the ground. Conroy was considerably bruised and scratched about the head, but the horse escaped uninjured. Conroy was taken home by friends and his injuries attended to. Patrick Conroy, who was in the buggy at the time of the runaway, was slightly bruised.

Bloomfielders Hear the Rev. Mr. Elliott. A number of people from this town attended the meeting of the Montclair Citizens' Committee of One Hundred last Friday night to hear the Rev. Walter Elliott, a Paillist Father, deliver an address. Father Elliott arraigned saloons and saloon-keepers, and pleaded with his audience to refrain from signing license applications.

Hurt by a Falling Timber.

Charles Callin, who is rebuilding the paper mill on upper Broad Street, met with a painful accident last Saturday while at work on the mill. A piece of heavy timber fell on his foot, severely injuring his leg. He will be confined to his home for several weeks.

"Up Goes My Banner."

The other day a bright-looking young gentleman entered a Y. M. C. A. restaurant and ordered his dinner. Looking at the walls of the dining room he noticed a placard which read, "We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of the Lord will we set up our banner." Next to the above was another, announcing "We are not responsible for Hats, Coats, Umbrellas or Overshoes left, exchanged, or stolen." The young man thought another card was necessary, so he reached up and took one down that was hanging near him, and on the back of it he wrote, "I once was weak, but now I am strong; I was a cripple, but now I am an athlete. A good Samaritan poured the oil of sympathy into my wounds and cured my infirmities by taking me to 270 Greenwich Street, New York, and placed upon my feet a pair of Coward's Common Sense Shoes. They were salvation for my feet, and Up Goes my Banner. Selah."—Adv.

Do you eat Pineapples? Whether you do or not is a matter of little importance. The question we want answered is—have you ever worn PINEAPPLE CLOTH?

If you haven't we think you had better see it here. If you have we want to say that our collection of this beautiful fabric this year surpasses any of former years.

The Patterns are distinctly "French" in design—in other words dainty and pretty; Black, Navy Blue and Brown grounds with colored figures.

We also have, among the new Spring stock, Scotch and French Gingham, many of them made by the famous "Anderson's, Whytlaes, Rutes and Greenless" people. These are at Lower Prices than anywhere else in Newark. You will find, besides, a fine line of Cheviots and Madras in Stripes and Plaids for MEN'S SHIRTS and LADIES' WAISTS. Indian Dinitys and Linen Lawns are here in a profusion of makes and styles. We are the only ones you can come to for Oxford Cheviot Shirtings in light grounds with stripes and plaids. No other house has them—at 12 1-2 c. a yard.

Call, even if you don't care to buy. The early glimpse of Spring we give is cheering. Read our adv. in this paper next issue.
